Amaya

Private Dining & Small Parties
in London

AMAYA HAS BEEN A TRAILBLAZER FOR MODERN INDIAN FOOD SINCE
OPENING IN 2004 TO WIDE ACCLAIM.

London's Michelin-starred contemporary grill continues to evolve and innovate to this day.
With its theatrical open kitchen, emphasis remains on the nuances of three kinds of grilling techniques of India and the visually stunning presentation of food. The restaurant is situated where fashionable Knightsbridge meets elegant Belgravia.

PRIVATE DINING ROOM

Seating up to 14, the beautifully appointed private dining room, with its stunning Indian artworks and hideaway feel, offers larger celebrations or business clients the chance to have their own space.

The sophisticated space accommodates a range of events, including lunchtime business meetings and elegant dinners, birthdays, and post-wedding receptions. We are also open for weekend family celebrations for lunch and dinner (children welcome when attending events in the private room).

The private dining room is open seven days a week for lunch or dinner.

Amaya's focus on a huge range of tastes from around India, made for sharing, means that putting together platters and set menus are one of the best ways to experience the cuisine fully, with the level of service and intimacy that guests can only get from a private dining room.

Our table plans are designed to give the utmost comfort to our guests.
For reference, please see the drawings below.

CAPACITIES

14 guests on one table. The expandable table can be adapted to seat 8 to 14.

A luxurious and intimate private space for fine Indian dining.

"Visited Amaya with work colleagues plus partners. We were in the private dining room. Food, drinks and service were exceptional. Our party included a vegetarian and vegan which didn't cause any problems - would highly highly recommend"
